

Meade County 4-H Store

The “4-H Store” at the Extension Office serves to give 4-H members a fun, tangible reward for attending events, helping the agents, and promoting 4-H. 4-H Members will earn points that can be redeemed for prizes. The points, called Clover Coins, and prizes are outlined below. Clover Coins can be rolled over year-to-year. The office will keep track of each 4-Her’s total, but 4-H members should keep track of their own points as well. To redeem your Clover Coins for a prize, please visit the Extension Office.

How to Earn Points:

2 CLOVER COINS:

- Newsletter – we will occasionally include some type of activity in the newsletter. Complete & turn in to the office within two weeks of the newsletter being released.
- Share or comment on a Facebook post.
- Have a parent text a photo of you working on your 4-H Project (max - once a month).

5 CLOVER COINS:

- Participate in a county-level 4-H event:
 - Agent programs, YQCA in person, Day Camp, Achievement Banquet, County Club Day, etc.
- Bring your projects to the Chill with 4-H open house to display- (October 13th)
- Participate in the county-wide fundraiser (sell Blue & Gold Sausage)
- Turn in a member record for a membership pin

10 CLOVER COINS:

- Help put on county-level 4-H event (agents must know you are helping and approve)
 - Examples: Help agents at community events such as back to school bash, serve as a counselor at Day Camps, help set up for a program, etc
- Bring a friend from Meade County who is NOT in 4-H to the Chill with 4-H open house
- Attend Wildhorse 4-H camp
- Attend a Regional 4-H Event
 - Examples: livestock judging contest (compete as a 4-Her), Regional Club Day, programs held
- Turn in a completed Project Record Book (competitive)

20 CLOVER COINS:

- Attend a state level 4-H event
 - CIA, KYLF, Camp at Rock Springs Ranch, etc
- Serve as a counselor at Wildhorse 4-H Camp

PRIZES:

We will have some of the prizes for 30 Clover Coins and under in stock at the office. The higher dollar and size specific prizes will be ordered. See the Extension Office for more prize options.
